A Note from the Conference Moderator

With the coming of flowers and beautiful Spring weather our thoughts turn to the Annual Meeting of the Southeast Conference. This year we will meet the last weekend of April rather than in June. Efforts to find an appropriate meeting place for June proved futile, and the dates of April 29-May 1 were chosen. Many of us recall that this was the regular time of meeting for many years in the past.

We are happy to be meeting at Bonanza United Church of Christ in Jonesboro, Georgia, where our Vice-Moderator, Floyd Carmack, is pastor. Some of us remember when Bonanza was a new church start, and look forward to meeting in their lovely church.

We rejoice with our Button Gwinnett United Church of Christ in their new building and with Pilgrimage United Church of Christ as they begin construction of their new building.

As always, it will be good to meet together at Annual Conference to share our joys and sorrows, hopes and dreams, trials and blessings with Christian friends from across the South. Let us turn our hearts and minds to God's Mission for the Southeast Conference as we plan for our Annual Meeting. In the weeks ahead may we pray that we might be sensitive to the promptings of our Lord as we prepare for our gathering.

ANNUAL MEETING

Advance materials and registration forms for the 17th Annual Meeting are being mailed to each pastor in the Southeast Conference.

We hope all churches can be represented at this year's meeting, to be held at Bonanza United Church of Christ, 10879 Tara Boulevard, Jonesboro, Georgia. The theme is "More Churches, More Members for God's Mission," with the Reverend James W. Atchison, Secretary for New Church Development, United Church Board for Homeland Ministries, as our keynote speaker.

This is an exciting theme. The meeting will be a good time of fellowship, sharing and inspiration as we look forward to the growth of our churches, not just for more people or statistics, but for the growth of our spirit and mission.

For those who can stay over, the Southeast Conference is invited to take part in the services of dedication of the Button Gwinnett United Church of Christ's new church building on Sunday, May 1 at 3:00 pm. The church is located in Gwinnett County, Georgia; maps will be provided.

We will again have the opportunity to share in small groups. Bonanza Church is working hard to welcome the Conference—we hope to see you there!

REPLY TO "60 MINUTES"

Representatives of five major Protestant denominations filed formal charges in Washington D.C. March 3 with the Federal Communications Commission against the CBS Network and its owned and operated stations for "personal attacks" made on them during a "60 Minutes" broadcast. They are asking the Commission to order CBS to provide a "reasonable amount" of air time to respond to the attacks, in accordance with FCC rules. The protesting churches are: The United Church of Christ, United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A., Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), Episcopal Church and United Methodist Church.

MOVING DAY FOR BUTTON GWINNETT U.C.C.

March 6 was a triumphant event for Button Gwinnett U.C.C., Lilburn, GA. Services began in the school where they have worshipped for 4 years, then the congregation processed up the street to continue worship at their new church building. 150 people joined in this celebration of a "wonderful worship experience." Quotes from their members sum up their day, "... I could not put into words what I felt as I stood there with all the others who had labored with love for this day," "... somehow it seemed symbolic that the sun shone so brightly after a stormy night," "... to think that after all these years we are really here!"

WILDERNESS THROUGH THE EASTER VICTORY

Faith in the resurrection calls us to newness of life, not the kind of newness that makes us a completely different person, but the kind that challenges us constantly to be growing in the right direction. Although total victory over our sins and weaknesses may be denied us, we can have the small victories that make us better and stronger and more fit for the next spiritual encounters that come.

Excerpted from Celebrating Observances for Special Times in Your Group. This service was prepared by Emmett O. Floyd, Conference Minister. Order the folder from Church Leadership Resources, 1400 N. 7th St., St. Louis, MO 63106; 75 cents plus postage/handling, catalog no. X5.

NEW PACKET OF PROGRAM RESOURCES BASED ON MATTHEW 16:13-16 NOW AVAILABLE

"Who do you say I am?" This is the essential question for all Christians. It is the deepest personal inquiry that can be made, for it plumbs the depths of our experience, the texture of our faith, the fabric and structure of our daily lives.

We each answer this very personal question in very personal ways. Our answers are influenced by who we are and where we live, by the work and ministry we do, by the happenings in our lives.

Who Do You Say I Am is the theme of the Church Life Resources for Laity and Clergy packet of study materials for 1983-84. "You Are the Door to Living Faith" is the answer from Alice Nkuchwayo in the worship/program booklet included in the packet. Alice is from Zimbabwe and is a member of Central Congregational Church, Atlanta.

You can order this packet from Church Life Resources, 1400 N. 7th St., St. Louis, MO 63106. $5.00 + 10% + $1.00 postage/handling.

VOLUNTEERS IN SERVICE TO HUMAN NEED

Volunteers In Service to Human Need is a new program component of the Voluntary Service program of the United Church Board for Homeland Ministries, U.C.C. The intent is to forge partnerships between the poor and disenfranchised, volunteers, Conferences, local churches and program agencies in an effort to creatively serve persons in need. The program began on Jan. 1, 1983 with the assistance of a grant from the 1982 Neighbors in Need offering.

Program agencies currently unable to provide for the full financial support of a volunteer will be provided with financial and technical assistance. Program agencies that meet this requirement along with the normal voluntary service criteria are presently being recruited as possible participants.

In addition to assisting program agencies to participate in this project, Conferences and local churches are invited to become involved through assisting with recruitment of volunteers, providing financial support where possible and encouraging the participation of program agencies.

A descriptive flyer is available from: Voluntary Service, UCBHM, 132 West 31st Street, New York, NY 10001.
